See page 8 for more information about responsible investing.

Build a diversified portfolio

Each single-asset-class fund accesses a range of investments within its stated asset class. It's up to you to decide how you combine each fund to ensure diversification across asset classes.

CASE STUDY: A TAILORED APPROACH, WITH THE BENEFIT OF ADVICE

Amy currently has a number of investments, including an investment property and $100,000 invested in a mix of Australasian equities and New Zealand fixed interest assets. She also has an additional $200,000 to invest.

Amy seeks advice from her financial adviser, David. After considering Amy’s financial needs, goals and tolerance for risk, David suggests that given her current investments are concentrated in Australasia, it would be prudent to diversify by investing this money into funds that invest into overseas asset classes, such as international equities and international fixed interest.

David recommends she invests into the International Share Fund, the International Property Fund, the International Listed Infrastructure Fund and the International Fixed Interest Fund. He explains that each of these funds invests in a broad range of underlying assets offering Amy broad diversification within each asset class. David also explains that as each fund invests into a single asset class, it will have a different level of risk and return – it’s important to get the right asset class mix across her investments.

Amy is comfortable as she knows she’s received good financial advice, and that her investments are well diversified across asset classes in New Zealand, and also overseas.

We recommend that, like Amy, you talk to your financial adviser about the investment options available to you.

What are the funds?

A selection of nine funds* targeting specific asset classes.

The main asset classes include:

- Fixed interest: debt securities issued by entities such as governments, corporations, local authorities and banks (called issuers). The issuer generally pays a set (or fixed) interest rate for a set period of time.
- Equities: part-ownership of a company or similar entity. Equities include units and shares. Shareholders share any profits or losses of the relevant entity.
- Listed property: shares or units in listed property trusts or companies. Those trusts or companies own or invest directly in property.
- Listed infrastructure: shares in listed infrastructure companies. Those companies own or invest directly in infrastructure assets.

We also offer a multi-asset-class Balanced Growth Fund that invests in the above asset classes, cash and cash equivalents, and a very small allocation to alternative assets.

 For more detail on the funds, see pages 10-13 of the PDS.

HOW THE FUNDS ARE MANAGED

The single-asset-class funds invest into underlying funds that we manage. These underlying funds focus their investments on a specific asset class. We believe this management structure benefits you because it creates efficiencies and we have greater control of the overall cost to you.

Our multi-asset-class Balanced Growth Fund invests most of its assets into our underlying funds. The Balanced Growth Fund spreads its investment over hundreds of assets in local and international markets. Our investment management team monitors and adjusts the asset class allocation, depending on how they believe each will perform.

 For more information about the Balanced Growth Fund, see pages 12 to 13 of the PDS.

Our selection and monitoring process

We use a combination of our investment management team and carefully selected external fund managers to manage the assets of the underlying funds.

Our selection of external fund managers follows an extensive research process.

Once selected, the managers' performance, strategy and investment processes are monitored on a regular basis.

These managers may change from time to time. The current external fund managers can be found in the SIPO.

 The current SIPO is available at anz.co.nz/OA-documents and on the offer register at disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz (click 'Search for an offer' and search for 'OneAnswer Single-Asset-Class Funds').

Responsible investing

All of our funds invest in line with our Responsible Investment Framework. This framework sets out our approach to responsible investing and how we apply it to our investment activities.

 See anz.co.nz/OA-responsibleinvesting for more details on our responsible investing approach including our memberships and certifications.
