- The purchaser shall pay the deposit to the vendor or the vendor's agent immediately upon execution of this agreement by both parties and/or at such other time as is specified in this agreement.
  - If the deposit is not paid on the due date for payment, the vendor may at any time thereafter serve on the purchaser notice requiring payment. - 3.0 Possession and Settlement
- Possession
- Unless particulars of a tenancy are included in this agreement, the property is sold with vacant possession and the vendor shall so yield the property on the settlement date.
  - If the property is sold with vacant possession, then subject to the rights of any tenants of the property, the vendor shall permit the purchaser or any person authorised by the purchaser in writing, upon reasonable notice:
    - to enter the property on an occasion prior to the settlement date for the purposes of examining the property, chattels and fixtures which are included in the sale; and
    - to re-enter the property on or before the settlement date to confirm compliance by the vendor with any agreement made by the vendor to carry out any work on the property and the chattels and the fixtures.
  - Possession shall be given and taken on the settlement date. Outgoings and incomings in respect of the settlement date are the responsibility of and belong to the vendor.
  - On the settlement date, the vendor shall make available to the purchaser keys to all exterior doors that are locked by key, electronic door openers to all doors that are opened electronically, and the keys and/or security codes to any alarms. The vendor does not have to make available keys, electronic door openers, and security codes where the property is tenanted and these are held by the tenant.
- Settlement
- The vendor shall prepare, at the vendor's own expense, a settlement statement. The vendor shall tender the settlement statement to the purchaser or the purchaser's lawyer a reasonable time prior to the settlement date.
  - The purchaser's lawyer shall:
    - within a reasonable time prior to the settlement date create a Landenthus workspace for the transaction, notify the vendor's lawyer of the dealing number allocated by LINZ, and prepare in that workspace a transfer instrument in respect of the property; and
    - prior to settlement:
      - lodge in that workspace the tax information contained in the transferor's tax statement; and
      - certify and sign the transfer instrument.
  - The vendor's lawyer shall:
    - within a reasonable time prior to the settlement date prepare in that workspace all other electronic instruments required to carry title on the purchaser in terms of the vendor's obligations under this agreement; and
    - prior to settlement:
      - lodge in that workspace the tax information contained in the transferor's tax statement; and
      - have those instruments and the transfer instrument certified, signed and, where possible, pre-validated.
  - On the settlement date:
    - the balance of the purchase price, interest and other amounts, if any, shall be paid by the purchaser in cleared funds or otherwise settled as provided in this agreement (credit being given for any amount payable by the vendor under subclauses 3.12 or 3.14);
    - the vendor's lawyer shall (immediately thereafter):
      - release or procure the release of the transfer instrument and the other instruments mentioned in subclause 3.7(1) so that the purchaser's lawyer can then submit them for registration;
      - pay to the purchaser's lawyer the LINZ registration fees on all of the instruments mentioned in subclause 3.7(1), unless those fees will be incurred to the vendor's lawyer by LINZ directly; and
      - deliver to the purchaser's lawyer any other documents that the vendor must provide to the purchaser on settlement in terms of this agreement.
  - All obligations under subclauses 3.8 are interdependent.
  - The parties shall complete settlement by way of remote settlement, provided that where payment by bank cheque is permitted under the PLS Guidelines, payment may be made by the personal delivery of a bank cheque to the vendor's lawyer's office, so long as it is accompanied by the undertaking from the purchaser's lawyer required by those Guidelines.

Last Minute Settlement

  - If due to the delay of the purchaser, settlement takes place between 4.00 pm and 5.00 pm on the settlement date ("last minute settlement"), the purchaser shall pay the vendor:
    - one day's interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price paid in the last minute settlement; and
    - if the day following the last minute settlement is not a working day, an additional day's interest (calculated in the same manner) for each day until, but excluding, the next working day.

Purchaser Default: Late Settlement

- 3.12 If any portion of the purchase price is not paid upon the due date for payment, then, provided that the vendor provides reasonable evidence of the vendor's ability to perform any obligation the vendor is obliged to perform on that date in consideration for such payment:
- (1) the purchaser shall pay to the vendor interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the portion of the purchase price so unpaid for the period from the due date for payment until payment ("the default period"); but nevertheless, this stipulation is without prejudice to any of the vendor's rights or remedies including any right to claim for additional expenses and damages. For the purposes of this subclause, a payment made on a day other than a working day or after the tenth (10th) of a working day shall be deemed to be made on the next following working day and interest shall be computed accordingly; and
  - (2) the vendor is not obliged to give the purchaser possession of the property or to pay the purchaser any amount for remaining in possession, unless this agreement relates to a tenanted property, in which case the vendor may elect either to:
    - (a) account to the purchaser on settlement for incomings in respect of the property which are payable and received during the default period, in which event the purchaser shall be responsible for the outgoings relating to the property during the default period; or
    - (b) retain such incomings in lieu of receiving interest from the purchaser pursuant to subclause 3.12(1).
- 3.13 Where subclause 3.12(1) applies and the parties are unable to agree upon any amount claimed by the vendor for additional expenses and damages:
- (1) an interim amount shall be agreed by the parties and paid to a stakeholder by the purchaser until the amount payable is determined;
  - (2) the interim amount must be a reasonable sum having regard to all of the circumstances;
  - (3) if the parties cannot agree on the interim amount, the interim amount shall be determined by an experienced property lawyer appointed by the parties. The appointed person's costs shall not be met by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on the appointment, the appointment shall be made on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society;
  - (4) the stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;
  - (5) the interest earned on the interim amount not of any withholding tax and any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges shall follow the destination of the interim amount;
  - (6) the amount determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
  - (7) if the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder, the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.
- Vendor Default: Late Settlement or Failure to Give Possession
- 3.14 (1) For the purposes of this subclause 3.14:
- (a) the default period means:
    - (i) in subclause 3.14(2), the period from the settlement date until the date when the vendor is able and willing to provide vacant possession and the purchaser takes possession; and
    - (ii) in subclause 3.14(3), the period from the date the purchaser takes possession until the date when settlement occurs; and
    - (iii) in subclause 3.14(6), the period from the settlement date until the date when settlement occurs; and
  - (b) the vendor shall be deemed to be unwilling to give possession if the vendor does not offer to give possession.
- (2) If this agreement provides for vacant possession but the vendor is unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement:
- (a) the vendor shall pay the purchaser, at the purchaser's election, either:
    - (i) compensation for any reasonable costs incurred for temporary accommodation for persons and storage of chattels during the default period; or
    - (ii) an amount equivalent to interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the entire purchase price during the default period; and
  - (b) the purchaser shall pay the vendor an amount equivalent to the interest earned or which would be earned on overnight deposits lodged in the purchaser's lawyer's trust bank account on such portion of the purchase price (including any deposit) as is payable under this agreement on or by the settlement date but remains unpaid during the default period less:
    - (i) any withholding tax; and
    - (ii) any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges; and
    - (iii) any interest payable by the purchaser to the purchaser's lender during the default period in respect of any mortgage or loan taken out by the purchaser in relation to the purchase of the property.
- (3) If this agreement provides for vacant possession and the vendor is able and willing to give vacant possession on the settlement date, then, provided the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the purchaser may elect to take possession in which case the vendor shall not be liable to pay any interest or other monies to the purchaser, but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 3.14(2)(b) during the default period. A purchaser in possession under this subclause 3.14(3) is a licensee only.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subclause 3.14(3), the purchaser may elect not to take possession when the purchaser is entitled to take it. If the purchaser elects not to take possession, the provisions of subclause 3.14(2) shall apply as though the vendor were unable or unwilling to give vacant possession on the settlement date.
- (5) If this agreement provides for the property to be sold tenanted then, provided that the purchaser provides reasonable evidence of the purchaser's ability to perform the purchaser's obligations under this agreement, the vendor shall on settlement account to the purchaser for incomings which are payable and received in respect of the property during the default period less the outgoings paid by the vendor during that period. Apart from accounting for such incomings, the vendor shall not be liable to pay any other monies to the purchaser but the purchaser shall pay the vendor the same amount as that specified in subclause 3.14(2)(b) during the default period.
- (6) The provisions of this subclause 3.14 shall be without prejudice to any of the purchaser's rights or remedies including any right to claim for any additional expenses and damages suffered by the purchaser.
- (7) Where the parties are unable to agree upon any amount payable under this subclause 3.14:
- (a) an interim amount shall be settled on settlement by paid to a stakeholder by the party against whom it is claimed until the amount payable is determined;
  - (b) the interim amount shall be the lower of:
    - (i) the amount claimed; or
    - (ii) an amount equivalent to interest at the interest rate for late settlement for the relevant default period on such portion of the purchase price (including any deposit) as is payable under this agreement on or by the settlement date.
  - (c) the stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;
  - (d) the interest earned on the interim amount not of any withholding tax and any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges shall follow the destination of the interim amount;
  - (e) the amount determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
  - (f) if the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.
- Deferral of Settlement and Possession
- 3.15 If:
- (1) this is an agreement for the sale by a commercial on-seller of a household unit; and
  - (2) a code compliance certificate has not been issued by the settlement date in relation to the household unit,
- then, unless the parties agree otherwise (in which case the parties shall enter into a written agreement in the form (if any) prescribed by the Building (Forms) Regulations 2004), the settlement date shall be deferred to the fifth working day following the date upon which the vendor has given the purchaser notice that the code compliance certificate has been issued (which notice must be accompanied by a copy of the certificate).
- 3.16 In every case, if neither party is ready, willing, and able to settle on the settlement date, the settlement date shall be deferred to the third working day following the date upon which one of the parties gives notice it has become ready, willing, and able to settle.
- 3.17 If:
- (1) the property is a unit title;
  - (2) the settlement date is deferred pursuant to either subclause 3.16 or subclause 3.18; and
  - (3) the vendor considers on reasonable grounds that an extension of time is necessary or desirable in order for the vendor to comply with the warranty by the vendor in subclause 6.2(3);
  - (4) then the vendor may extend the settlement date:
- (a) where there is a deferral of the settlement date pursuant to subclause 3.16, to the tenth working day following the date upon which the vendor gives the purchaser notice that the code compliance certificate has been issued, provided the vendor gives notice of the extension to the purchaser no later than the second working day after such notice; or
  - (b) where there is a deferral of the settlement date pursuant to subclause 3.16, to the tenth working day following the date upon which one of the parties gives notice that it has become ready, willing, and able to settle, provided the vendor gives notice of the extension to the purchaser no later than the second working day after such notice.

New Title Provision*3.18 (1) Where

- (a) the vendor of the property is to be registered against a new title yet to be issued; and
- (b) a search copy, as defined in section 172A of the Land Transfer Act 1952, of that title is not obtainable by the tenth working day prior to the settlement date;
- (c) then, unless the purchaser elects that settlement shall still take place on the agreed settlement date, the settlement date shall be deferred to the tenth working day following the later of the date on which:
- (i) the vendor has given the purchaser notice that a search copy is obtainable; or
- (ii) the requisitions procedure under clause 5.8 is complete.

(2) Subclause 3.18(1) shall not apply where it is necessary to register the transfer of the property to enable a plan to deposit and title to the property to issue.

4.0 Risk and Insurance*4.1 The property and chattels shall remain at the risk of the vendor until possession is given and taken.

4.2 If, prior to the giving and taking of possession, the property is destroyed or damaged, and such destruction or damage has not been made good by the settlement date, then the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) If the destruction or damage has been sufficient to render the property untenable and it is untenable on the settlement date, the purchaser may:
- (a) complete the purchase at the purchase price, less a sum equal to any insurance monies received or receivable by or on behalf of the vendor in respect of such destruction or damage, provided that no reduction shall be made to the purchase price if the vendor's insurance company has agreed to reinstate for the benefit of the purchaser to the extent of the vendor's insurance cover; or
- (b) cancel this agreement by serving notice on the vendor in which case the vendor shall return to the purchaser immediately the deposit and any other money paid by the purchaser, and neither party shall have any right or claim against the other arising from this agreement or its cancellation;
- (2) If the property is not untenable on the settlement date the purchaser shall complete the purchase at the purchase price less a sum equal to the amount of the diminution in value of the property which, to the extent that the destruction or damage to the property can be made good, shall be deemed to be equivalent to the reasonable cost of reinstatement or repair;
- (3) In the case of a property zoned for rural purposes under an operative District Plan, damage to the property shall be deemed to have rendered the property untenable where the diminution in value exceeds an amount equal to 20% of the purchase price; and
- (4) If the amount of the diminution in value is disputed, the parties shall follow the same procedure as that set out in subclause 7.4 for when an amount of compensation is disputed.

4.3 The purchaser shall not be required to take over any insurance policies held by the vendor.

5.0 Title, boundaries and requisitions

5.1 The vendor shall not be bound to point out the boundaries of the property except that on the sale of a vacant residential lot which is not limited as to parcels the vendor shall ensure that all boundary markers required by the Cadastral Survey Act 2002 and any related rules and regulations to identify the boundaries of the property are present in their correct positions at the settlement date.

- (1) The purchaser is deemed to have accepted the vendor's title except as to objections or requisitions which the purchaser is entitled to make and notice of which the purchaser gives to the vendor on or before the earlier of:
- (a) the tenth working day after the date of this agreement; or

- (2) Where the transfer of the property is to be registered against a new title yet to be issued, the purchaser is deemed to have accepted the title except as to such objections or requisitions which the purchaser is entitled to make and notice of which the purchaser serves on the vendor on or before the fifth working day following the date the vendor has given the purchaser notice that the title has been issued and a search copy of it as defined in section 172A of the Land Transfer Act 1952 is obtainable.
- (3) If the vendor is unable or unwilling to remove or comply with any objection or requisition as to title, notice of which has been served on the vendor by the purchaser, then the following provisions will apply:
- (a) the vendor shall notify the purchaser ("a vendor's notice") of such inability or unwillingness on or before the fifth working day after the date of service of the purchaser's notice;
- (b) if the vendor does not give a vendor's notice the vendor shall be deemed to have accepted the objection or requisition and it shall be a requirement of settlement that such objection or requisition shall be complied with before settlement;
- (c) if the purchaser does not on or before the fifth working day after service of a vendor's notice notify the vendor that the purchaser waives the objection or requisition, either the vendor or the purchaser may (notwithstanding any intermediate negotiations) by notice to the other, cancel this agreement.

5.4 Except as provided by section 7 of the Contractual Renteries Act 1970, no error, omission, or misdescription of the property or the title shall enable the purchaser to cancel this agreement but compensation, if claimed by notice before settlement in accordance with subclause 7.1 but not otherwise, shall be made or given as the case may require.

5.5 The vendor shall not be liable to pay for or contribute towards the expense of erection or maintenance of any fence between the property and any contiguous land of the vendor but this provision shall not entitle the benefit of any subsequent purchaser of the contiguous land; and the vendor shall be entitled to require the inclusion of a fencing covenant to this effect in any transfer of the property.

- (d) Where under the Building Act, any building on the property sold requires a compliance schedule:
- the vendor has fully complied with any requirements specified in any compliance schedule issued by a territorial authority under the Building Act in respect of the building;
  - the building has a current building warrant of fitness; and
  - the vendor is not aware of any reason, that the vendor has not disclosed in writing to the purchaser, which would prevent a building warrant of fitness from being supplied to the territorial authority when the building warrant of fitness is next due.
- (e) Since the date of this agreement, the vendor has not given any consent or waiver which directly or indirectly affects the property:
- from any local or government authority or other statutory body; or
  - under the Resource Management Act 1991; or
  - from any tenant of the property; or
  - from any other party,

- 6.3 Any covenants included in the sale are the unencumbered property of the vendor.
- If the property is or includes part only of a building, the warranty and undertaking in subclause 6.2(e) does not apply. Instead the vendor warrants and undertakes at the date of this agreement that, where under the Building Act the building of which the property forms part requires a compliance schedule:
- to the vendor's knowledge, there has been full compliance with any requirements specified in any compliance schedule issued by a territorial authority under the Building Act in respect of the building;
  - the building has a current building warrant of fitness; and
  - the vendor is not aware of any reason, that the vendor has not disclosed in writing to the purchaser, which would prevent a building warrant of fitness from being supplied to the territorial authority when the building warrant of fitness is next due.
- 6.4 The vendor warrants and undertakes that on or immediately after settlement:
- If the water and wastewater charges are determined by meter, the vendor will have the water meter read and will pay the amount of the charge payable pursuant to that reading; but if the water supplier will not make specific readings, the water and wastewater charges shall be apportioned.
  - Any outgoings included in the settlement statement are paid in accordance with the settlement statement and, where applicable, to the dates shown in the settlement statement, or within 10 days immediately after settlement.
  - The vendor will give notice of sale in accordance with the Local Government (Rating) Act 2002 to the territorial authority and regional council in whose district the land is situated and will also give notice of the sale to every other authority that makes and levies rates or charges on the land and to the supplier of water.
- 6.5 Where the property is a unit title, the vendor will notify the body corporate in writing of the transfer of the property and the name and address of the purchaser.
- If the purchaser has not validly terminated this agreement, the breach of any warranty or undertaking contained in this agreement does not defer the obligation to settle but that obligation shall be subject to the rights of the purchaser of law or in equity, including any rights under subclause 6.4 and any right of equitable set-off.
- ## 7.0 Claims for compensation
- 7.1 If the purchaser claims a right to compensation either under subclause 6.4 or for an equitable set-off:
- the purchaser must serve notice of the claim on the vendor on or before the last working day prior to settlement; and

    - be particularised and quantified to the extent reasonably possible as at the date of the notice.
- 7.2 For the purposes of subclause 7.1(f), "settlement" means the date for settlement fixed by this agreement unless, by reason of the conduct or omission of the vendor, the purchaser is unable to give notice by that date, in which case notice may be given on or before the last working day prior to the date for settlement fixed by a valid settlement notice served by either party pursuant to subclause 10.1.
- 7.3 If the amount of compensation is agreed, it shall be deducted on settlement.
- 7.4 If the amount of compensation is disputed:
- An interim amount shall be deducted on settlement and paid by the purchaser to a stakeholder until the amount of the compensation is determined;
  - The interim amount must be a reasonable sum having regard to all of the circumstances;
  - If the parties cannot agree on the interim amount, the interim amount shall be determined by an experienced property lawyer appointed by the parties. The appointee's costs shall be met equally by the parties. If the parties cannot agree on the opposite, the appointment shall be made on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society;
  - The stakeholder shall lodge the interim amount on interest-bearing call deposit with a bank registered under the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 in the joint names of the vendor and the purchaser;
  - The interest earned on the interim amount net of any withholding tax and any bank or legal administration fees and commission charges shall follow the distribution of the interim amount;
  - The amount of compensation determined to be payable shall not be limited by the interim amount; and
  - If the parties cannot agree on a stakeholder, the interim amount shall be paid to a stakeholder nominated on the application of either party by the president for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society.
- 7.5 The procedures prescribed in subclauses 7.1 to 7.4 shall not prevent either party taking proceedings for the specific performance of the contract.

If the purchaser does not give a purchaser's notice the purchaser shall be deemed to have approved the LIM. If, through no fault of the purchaser, the LIM is not available on or before the fifth working day after the date of this agreement and the vendor does not give an extension when requested, this condition shall not have been fulfilled and the provisions of subclause 8.0(5) shall apply.
- (3) The vendor shall give notice to the purchaser ('the vendor's notice') on or before the fifth working day after receipt of the purchaser's notice advising whether or not the vendor is able and willing to comply with the purchaser's notice by the settlement date.
- (4) If the vendor does not give a vendor's notice, or if the vendor's notice advises that the vendor is unable or unwilling to comply with the purchaser's notice, and the purchaser waives the objection to the LIM, this condition shall not have been fulfilled and the provisions of subclause 8.0(5) shall apply.
- (5) If the vendor gives a vendor's notice advising that the vendor is able and willing to comply with the purchaser's notice, this condition is deemed to have been fulfilled, and it shall be a requirement of settlement that the purchaser's notice shall be complied with; and also, if the vendor must carry out work on the property, that the vendor shall obtain the approval of the territorial authority to the work done, both before settlement.
- 9.3 If the purchaser has indicated on the front page of this agreement that a building report is required, this agreement is conditional upon the purchaser obtaining the property that is satisfactory to the purchaser, on the basis of an objective assessment. The report must be prepared in good faith by a suitably-qualified building inspector in accordance with accepted principles and methods. Subject to the rights of any tenants of the property, the vendor shall allow the building inspector to inspect the property at all reasonable times upon reasonable notice for the purposes of preparation of the report. The building inspector may not carry out any invasive testing in the course of inspection without the vendor's prior written consent. - 9.4 (1) If the purchaser has indicated on the front page of this agreement that OIA Consent is required, this agreement is conditional upon OIA Consent being obtained on or before the Land Act/OIA date shown on the front page of this agreement, the purchaser being responsible for payment of the application fee.

  - Time for fulfilment of any condition and any extended time for fulfilment to a fixed date shall be of the essence.
  - The condition shall be deemed to be not fulfilled until notice of fulfilment has been served by one party on the other party.
  - If the condition is not fulfilled by the date for fulfilment, either party may at any time before the condition is fulfilled or waived avoid this agreement by giving notice to the other. Upon avoidance of this agreement, the purchaser shall be entitled to the immediate return of the deposit and any other moneys paid by the purchaser under this agreement and neither party shall have any right or claim against the other arising from this agreement or its termination.
  - At any time before this agreement is avoided, the purchaser may waive any finance condition and either party may waive any other condition which is to the sole benefit of that party. Any waiver shall be by notice.

  - If the purchaser is in possession, the vendor's right to cancel this agreement will be subject to sections 28 to 36 of the Property Law Act 2007 and the settlement notice may incorporate or be given with a notice under section 28 of that Act complying with section 28 of that Act.
- 10.2 Subject to subclause 10.1(3), upon service of the settlement notice the party on whom the notice is served shall settle:
- on or before the tenth working day after the date of service of the notice; or
  - on the first working day after the 15th day of January if the period of twelve working days expires during the period commencing on the 6th day of January and ending on the 12th day of January, both days inclusive,
- both being of the essence, but without prejudice to any intermediate right of cancellation by either party.

- 10.3 (1) If this agreement provides for the payment of the purchase price by instalments and the purchaser fails duly and punctually to pay any instalment on or within one month from the date on which it falls due for payment then, whether or not the purchaser is in possession, the vendor may immediately give notice to the purchaser calling up the unpaid balance of the purchase price, which shall upon service of the notice fall immediately due and payable.

     (b) cancel this agreement by notice and pursue either or both of the following remedies namely:
         (i) forfeit and retain for the vendor's own benefit the deposit paid by the purchaser, but not exceeding in all 10% of the purchase price; and/or
         (ii) sue the purchaser for damages.
 (2) Where the vendor is entitled to cancel this agreement, the entry by the vendor into a conditional or unconditional agreement for the resale of the property or any part thereof shall take effect as a cancellation of this agreement by the vendor if this agreement has not previously been cancelled and such resale shall be deemed to have occurred after cancellation.
 (3) The damages claimable by the vendor under subclause 10.4(1)(b)(ii) shall include all damages claimable at common law or in equity and shall also include (but shall not be limited to) any loss incurred by the vendor on any lease held resale contracted within one year from the date by which the purchaser should have sold in compliance with the settlement notice. The amount of that loss may include:
     (a) interest on the unpaid portion of the purchase price at the interest rate for late settlement from the settlement date to the settlement of such resale; and
     (b) all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in any resale or attempted resale; and
     (c) all outgoings (other than interest) on or maintenance expenses in respect of the property from the settlement date to the settlement of such resale.
 (4) Any surplus money arising from a resale as aforesaid shall be retained by the vendor.
- 10.5 If the vendor does not comply with the terms of a settlement notice served by the purchaser, then, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to the purchaser at law or in equity the purchaser may:
 (1) sue the vendor for specific performance; or
 (2) cancel this agreement by notice and require the vendor forthwith to repay to the purchaser any deposit and any other money paid on account of the purchase price and interest on such sum(s) at the interest rate for late settlement from the date or dates of payment by the purchaser until repayment.
- 10.6 The party serving a settlement notice may extend the term of this notice for one or more specifically stated periods of time and thereupon the term of the period(s) of notice in the period otherwise applicable; and time shall be of the essence accordingly. An extension may be given either before or after the expiry of the period of the notice.
- 10.7 Nothing in this clause shall preclude a party from suing for specific performance without giving a settlement notice.
- 10.8 A party who serves a settlement notice under this clause shall not be in breach of an essential term by reason only of that party's failure to be ready and able to settle upon the expiry of that notice.
- 11.0 Non-merger
- 11.1 The obligations and warranties of the parties in this agreement shall not merge with:
 (1) the giving and taking of possession;
 (2) settlement;
 (3) the transfer of title to the property;
 (4) delivery of the chattels (if any); or
 (5) registration of the transfer of title to the property.

 (2) where the GST date has not been inserted on the front page of this agreement the GST date shall be the settlement date;
 (3) where any GST is not so paid to the vendor, the purchaser shall pay to the vendor:
     (a) interest at the interest rate for late settlement on the amount of GST unpaid from the GST date until payment; and
     (b) any default GST;
 (4) it shall not be a defence to a claim against the purchaser for payment to the vendor of any default GST that the vendor has failed to mitigate the vendor's damages by paying an amount of GST when it fell due under the GST Act; and
 (5) any sum referred to in this clause is included in the monies payable by the purchaser on settlement pursuant to subclause 3.8(1).
- 13.2 If the supply under this agreement is a taxable supply, the vendor will deliver a tax invoice to the purchaser on or before the GST date or such earlier date as the purchaser is entitled to delivery of an invoice under the GST Act.
- 13.3 The vendor warrants that any dwelling and carriage or part thereof supplied on sale of the property are not a supply to which section 5(10) of the GST Act applies.

14.7 If

- (1) the particulars stated in Schedule 2 indicate that the recipient intends to use part of the property as a principal place of residence by the recipient or a person associated with the recipient under section 2A(1)(c) of the GST Act; and
- (2) that part is the same part as that being used as a principal place of residence at the time of the supply under this agreement, then the references in subsections 14.3 and 14.4 to "the property" shall be deemed to mean the remainder of the property excluding that part and the references to "the supply under this agreement" shall be deemed to mean the supply under this agreement of that remainder.

15.0 Supply of a Going Concern

- 15.1 If there is a supply under this agreement to which section 5(1)(mb) of the GST Act does not apply but which comprises the supply of a taxable activity that is a going concern at the time of the supply, then, unless otherwise expressly stated herein:
- (1) each party warrants that it is a registered person or will be so by the date of the supply;
  - (2) each party agrees to provide the other party by the date of the supply with proof of its registration for GST purposes;
  - (3) the parties agree that they intend that the supply is of a taxable activity that is capable of being carried on as a going concern by the purchaser; and
  - (4) the parties agree that the supply made pursuant to this agreement is the supply of a going concern on which GST is chargeable at 0%.
- 15.2 If it subsequently transpires that GST is payable in respect of the supply and if this agreement provides for the purchaser to pay in addition to the purchase price without GST any GST which is payable in respect of the supply made under this agreement, then the provisions of clause 13.8 of this agreement shall apply.

16.0 Limitation of Liability

- 16.1 If any person enters into this agreement as trustee of a trust, then:
- (1) That person warrants that:
    - (a) the person has power to enter into this agreement under the terms of the trust;
    - (b) the person has properly signed this agreement in accordance with the terms of the trust;
    - (c) the person has the right to be indemnified from the assets of the trust and that right has not been lost or impaired by any action of that person including entry into this agreement; and
    - (d) all of the persons who are trustees of the trust have approved entry into this agreement.
  - (2) If that person has no right to or interest in any assets of the trust except in that person's capacity as a trustee of the trust, that person's liability under this agreement will not be personal and unlimited but will be limited to the actual amount recoverable from the assets of the trust from time to time ("the limited amount"). If the right of that person to be indemnified from the trust assets has been lost or impaired, that person's liability will become personal but limited to the extent of that part of the limited amount which cannot be recovered from any other person.

17.0 Counterparts

- 17.1 This agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which will together be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. A party may enter into this agreement by signing a counterpart copy and sending it to the other party, including by facsimile or email.

21.1 Supply Zero Rated

21.1 Supply zero rated

21.4 Purchaser's Warranty

21.4 Purchaser's Warranty
The Purchaser warrants that it is and will remain registered under the GST Act at all times necessary to ensure that the supply of the agreement is zero-rated for GST.

REPLACEMENT AND ADDITIONAL CLAUSES

19.0 Purchaser capital raising/nomination

- 19.1 This agreement is further conditional on the Purchaser confirming to the Vendor that it has completed its required capital raising (by way of an offer to the public of shares in a new company to be formed) and associated debt funding in order to complete the purchase of the Property by no later than 5 pm on the date which is 35 working days after the date of satisfaction or waiver of the condition in clause 18.1. Upon satisfaction of the condition in this clause the Purchaser will nominate the new company to take title to the Property.
- 19.2 The condition in clause 19.1 is inserted for the sole benefit of the Purchaser.

- 20.9 The Vendor warrants that it does not hold any information which would reasonably be considered to be material to a purchaser of the Property and which has not been provided to the Purchaser during its due diligence investigation (and prior to the satisfaction or waiver of the condition in clause 18.1).

Additional clauses

23.0 Assignment of guarantees or warranties

- 23.1 On settlement, in addition to the items referred to in clauses 3.4 (if applicable) and 3.8(2) of this agreement, the Vendor shall hand to the Purchaser an assignment in a form prepared by the Purchaser and approved by the Vendor (acting reasonably) of any guarantees or warranties held by the Vendor in relation to the Property and the buildings and improvements thereon (provided that the Vendor gives no warranty to the Purchaser that the guarantees or warranties are capable of assignment).

24.0 Adjustment of purchase price

- 24.1 The parties acknowledge that the Purchase Price stated on the front page of this agreement is the capitalised value of the Property based on a 7.25% capitalisation rate as per the attached Tenancy Schedule and on the assumption that the market rent review effective on 22 November 2016 under the lease of the Ground Floor (Unit 2) and Levels 1 to 3 to Accident Compensation Corporation (the "ACC Rent Review") will result in an increase of $30 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of Level 1, 2 and 3 office space and of $70 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of ground floor space.

- 24.2 If the rent increase finally agreed or determined under the ACC Rent Review is less than $30 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of Level 1, 2 and 3 space and $70 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of ground floor space there will be a downwards adjustment to the Purchase Price accordingly, using the same capitalisation rate of 7.25%. If the rent increase finally agreed or determined under the ACC Rent Review is greater than $30 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of Level 1, 2 and 3 space and $70 plus GST per annum (semi-gross) per square metre of ground floor space there will be no change to the Purchase Price.

- 24.3 If the ACC Rent Review has not been agreed or determined prior to the settlement date, the Purchaser's solicitor will retain $1,355,131.04 (the "Retention Amount", being the approximate difference in value if the ACC Rent Review were to result in a nil increase) from the Purchase Price as stakeholder in the joint names of the Vendor and the Purchaser, pending the outcome of the ACC Rent Review. Following the outcome of the ACC Rent Review, and the adjustment of the Purchase Price in accordance with clause 24.2, the Purchaser's solicitor will immediately pay the relevant portions of the Retention Amount to the Vendor and the Purchaser in cleared funds. Net Interest (after the deduction of withholding tax and commission) earned on the Retention Amount will be shared between the parties in proportion to the funds so paid.
- 24.4 The Purchaser appoints the Vendor as its agent to complete the ACC Rent Review which the Vendor shall complete strictly in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the ACC Lease and the Purchaser agrees to be bound by the rent so agreed or determined under the ACC Rent Review. This is an essential term of the agreement.
- 24.5 The parties will use their commercially reasonable endeavours to ensure that the best outcome is achieved from the ACC Rent Review, and must agree (acting reasonably and in good faith) all actions taken (including all communications with the tenant and all instructions to the valuers) in that regard.

Current net	1,766,047.00
Add
Forecast rent increase 22 Nov 16
Ground floor 406.8 sqm @ $70	28,476.00
Level 1 775.9 sqm @ $30	23,277.00
Level 2 775 sqm @ $30	23,250.00
Level 3 774.8 sqm @ $30	23,244.00
New net rental	1,864,294.00	7.25%	$25,714,400.00

For clarification purposes the parties agree the determination of the final Purchase Price will be calculated as follows:

($1,766,047.00 plus rent increases achieved under ACC Rent Review expressed on a per annum basis)

So for example if annual rent increase under ACC Rent Review is $50,000.00 plus GST per annum the final Purchase Price will be

($1,766,047.00 plus $50,000.00)

7.25%
= 25,048,924.13

And if there is no rent increase under the ACC rent review then the final Purchase Price will be

- 24.6 The Vendor will, promptly after execution of this agreement, instruct Mike Horsley of Colliers to prepare a valuer's certificate determining the current market rent for the ACC premises the subject of the ACC rent review, with a requirement for that certificate to be prepared within 10 working days of the date of this agreement. The valuer's certificate will be paid for by the Vendor, and must be prepared on the basis that it may be relied upon by the Purchaser or its nominee should this agreement become unconditional. Colliers will be instructed to supply the valuer's certificate to both the Vendor and the Purchaser simultaneously once completed, and once accepted by the parties in accordance with clause 24.5, the Vendor shall institute the ACC rent review in accordance with that lease by notice to the Tenant at the current market rent set out in the valuer's certificate.
- 24.7 Should the valuer's certificate prepared in accordance with clause 24.6 not result in an assessment of current market rent at or above the levels of increase referred to in clause 24.1, the parties agree that, from the time of receipt of the valuer's certificate, there will be an initial downwards adjustment to the purchase price in accordance with clause 24.2. For the avoidance of doubt this will be an interim adjustment to the purchase price, and the final adjustment will be determined on completion of the ACC Rent Review in accordance with clause 24.2. If clause 24.3 applies, the Retention Amount will also be reduced in accordance with such interim adjustment.
- 24.8 Should the ACC Rent Review not be finally determined on the date which is 60 working days after the settlement date, the Retention Amount (and all net interest thereon) will be released by the Purchaser's solicitors to the Purchaser, but such release will not relieve the Purchaser from the obligation to make any required payment to the Vendor upon final determination of the ACC Rent Review and adjustment to the Purchase Price, except that in these circumstances all net interest earned on the Retention Amount (both before and after disbursement to the Purchaser) may be retained by the Purchaser.

The parties further agree that the rent increase achieved under the ACC Rent Review will be the only variable used in determining the final Purchase Price.

25.0 Lowest Price

- 25.1 The Purchase Price for the Property is the lowest price that the parties would have agreed upon for the Property at the date this agreement is entered into under the rules relating to the accrual treatment of income and expenditure in the Income Tax Act 2007 and on that basis no income or expenditure arises in respect of the sale and purchase of the Property under those rules.

BEFORE SIGNING THE AGREEMENT

- It is recommended both parties seek professional advice before signing. This is especially so if:
  - there are any doubts. Once signed, this will be a binding contract with only restricted rights of termination.
  - property such as a hotel or a farm is being sold. The agreement is designed primarily for the sale of residential and commercial property.
  - the property is vacant land in the process of being subdivided or there is a new unit title or cross lease to be issued. In these cases additional clauses may need to be inserted.
  - there is any doubt as to the position of the boundaries.
  - the purchaser wishes to check the weatherlighliness and soundness of construction of any dwellings or other buildings on the land.
- The purchaser should investigate the status of the property under the Council's District Plan. The property and those around it are affected by zoning and other planning provisions regulating their use and future development.
- The purchaser should investigate whether necessary permits, consents and code compliance certificates have been obtained from the Council where building works have been carried out. This investigation can be assisted by obtaining a LIM from the Council.
- The purchaser should compare the title plans against the physical location of existing structures where the property is a unit title or cross lease. Structures or alterations to structures not shown on the plans may result in the title being defective.
- In the case of a unit title, before the purchaser enters into the agreement:
  - the vendor must provide to the purchaser a pre-contract disclosure statement under section 146 of the Unit Titles Act 2010;
  - the purchaser should check the minutes of the past meetings of the body corporate, enquire whether there are any issues affecting the units and/or the common property, check the body corporate's long term maintenance plan and enquire whether the body corporate has imposed or proposed levies for a long term maintenance fund or any other fund for the maintenance of, or remedial or other work to, the common property.
- The vendor should ensure the warranties and undertakings in clauses 6 and 8:
  - are able to be complied with; and if not
  - the applicable warranty is deleted from the agreement and any appropriate disclosure is made to the purchaser.
- Both parties should ensure the chattels list in Schedule 1 is accurate.
- Before signing this agreement, both parties should seek professional advice regarding the GST treatment of the transaction. This depends upon the GST information supplied by the parties and could change before settlement if that information changes.

81 MOLESWORTH STREET LIMITED TO MAAT CONSULTING LIMITED - 81 MOLESWORTH STREET, WELLINGTON

In order to formalise the agreed changes to the sale contract that were discussed yesterday, we hereby request on behalf of the purchaser that the following changes are made to the sale contract:

- 1      The purchase price is amended to be $24,946,800 plus GST (if any).
- 2      Clauses 24.1 to 24.8 (adjustment to purchase price) are deleted.
- 3      New clauses 24.1 to 24.3 are added to the sale contract as follows:

"24.0 ACC Rent Review

- 24.1 Neither party shall take any steps to commence the market rent review due on 22 November 2016 (the "ACC Rent Review") under the lease of the Ground Floor (Unit 2) and Levels 1 to 3 to Accident Compensation Corporation ("ACC"), or to otherwise discuss or communicate with ACC in respect of such rent review, prior to the settlement date, or the date on which this contract is otherwise avoided.
- 24.2 Should either party receive any communications from ACC in respect of the ACC Rent Review prior to the settlement date, or the date on which this contract is otherwise avoided, that party will promptly forward those communications to the other party. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause 24.2 will require the Purchaser to involve the Vendor in the ACC Rent Review process after settlement occurs, other than by making any payment required pursuant to clause 24.3.
- 24.3 If the outcome of the ACC Rent Review after the settlement date (assuming this agreement is not avoided for non-fulfilment of the condition in clause 19.1) results in a rent increase under that lease, and an adjustment payment from ACC to the Purchaser for any back-dated rent increase effective from 22 November 2016, the Purchaser will pay to the Vendor its proportion of such back-dated payment for the period from 22 November 2016 to the settlement date (both days inclusive)."

Provided the above changes to the sale contract are confirmed as being accepted by the Vendor, the Purchaser hereby confirms satisfaction of the due diligence condition in clause 18.1 of the contract.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Hi Richard

Please see the attached letter. My client's calculations for the revised purchase price are copied as follows:

The calculation is:

Base Net Rent per Contract $1,766,047

Rent Review adjustment $42,597

Therefore Adjusted Purchase Price:

$1,766,047 + $42,597

7.25%

= $1,808,644

7.25%

=$24,946,813

(Say) $24,946,800?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards
