OBJECTS

4. The objects of the Credit Union shall be:
 - (a) the promotion of thrift among its Members by the accumulation of their savings; and
 - (b) the use and control of the Members' savings for their mutual benefit, including:
 - (i) for making loans to Members; and
 - (ii) for making loans under Rule 66(b); and
 - (c) the provision of products or services under Rule 69; and
 - (d) the training and education of the Members in the wise use of money and in the management of their financial affairs; and
 - (e) at the discretion of the Credit Union and as a minor adjunct to its other objects, the welfare of its Members and the making of donations for charitable, cultural, benevolent, or philanthropic purposes.

EFFECT OF RULES

5. These Rules are binding in accordance with their terms, as between:
 - (a) the Credit Union and each Member; and
 - (b) each Member.

CAPACITY AND POWERS

6. The Credit Union has, both within and outside New Zealand, full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity, to do any act or to enter into any transaction where the carrying on or undertaking of the business or activity, the doing of the act or entering into the transaction:
 - (a) is directly in pursuance of the Credit Union's objects or is incidental to the Credit Union's objects; and
 - (b) is authorised by the Act or these Rules.
7. For the purposes of Rule 6(b), (and without limiting Rules 66 to 72 (both inclusive) or any powers or duties of the Directors, any Board Committee, the Secretary or the Treasurer) the Credit Union is authorised:
 - (a) to borrow money;
 - (b) to invest surplus funds of the Credit Union in accordance with such policies as are adopted by the Board, from time to time;
 - (c) to purchase, hold, take on lease, sell, exchange, mortgage, lease or otherwise deal with any land, building or part of a building or any equipment, fittings or fixtures whether relating to any building or not;
 - (d) to provide products or services (including, without limitation, the provision of cash to ATM providers) to facilitate the use by Members and Enterprises of automatic teller machines;
 - (e) to enter into agreements with any persons in relation to the provision of direct credit, direct debit or telephone services or any services associated with Electronic Transactions; and

- (f) to hold shares in a Company which has as its principal business the provision of insurance products, as permitted by the Licence, and to appoint and remove the directors of that Company.

REGISTERED OFFICE

- 8. The registered office of the Credit Union shall be at 111 Collingwood Street, Hamilton or at such other place as the Board may from time to time decide. Notice of any change in the registered office shall be sent to the Registrar within 14 days.

MEMBERSHIP

- 9. Admission to Membership of the Credit Union shall be limited to:
 - (a) any person residing or working in New Zealand including any such person aged 16 years or younger;
 - (b) any person who is a Member of the same household as, and is a relative of, a person who has been admitted to Membership and who continues to qualify for admission to Membership, of the Credit Union under paragraph (a) hereof;
 - (c) a charitable entity as defined by the Charities Act 2005;
 - (d) an incorporated society registered under the Incorporated Societies Act 1908; and
 - (e) in paragraph (b) of this Rule, the term 'relative', in relation to any person, means:
 - (i) the spouse of that person including any former spouse or de facto spouse;
 - (ii) any lineal ancestor, lineal descendent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, or first cousin of that person or that person's spouse; and
 - (iii) the spouse (including any former spouse or de facto spouse) or any relative specified in subparagraph (ii) hereof.
- 10. An applicant shall be admitted to Membership provided:
 - (a) the applicant has completed an application in writing on a form prescribed by the Board;
 - (b) the applicant qualifies for admission to Membership under Rule 9; and
 - (c) the applicant has paid any entrance fee payable in accordance with these Rules.
- 11. A person, charitable entity, or incorporated society, that fails to hold at least one fully paid-up Share in the Credit Union, or such higher number as may be determined by the Board but not exceeding $10 in fully paid-up Shares, shall not be permitted to become or to remain a Member of the Credit Union.
- 12.
 - (a) A Member who ceases to fulfil the qualifications for Membership under Rule 9 shall be entitled, subject to Rule 13, to retain that Membership and in these Rules shall be referred to as a 'non-qualifying Member' provided that a Member shall not cease to fulfil the qualifications for Membership by reason merely of retirement from a particular occupation or employment for a particular employer.
 - (b) The savings accounts of any Member who ceases to operate at least one savings account and/or loan account during any period of twelve consecutive months shall be deemed to be dormant accounts.
 - (c) An annual account fee for dormant accounts may be prescribed in accordance with these Rules, provided however that if the Member operates the account at any time within five years of the account becoming dormant or if the Member is terminated pursuant to Rule 13, whichever occurs first, the annual account fees deducted under this Rule shall be refunded in full. For the purposes of this Rule the dormancy of the account shall be deemed to commence at the beginning of the 12-month period in which the account is first found to be dormant.
 - (a) The number of non-qualifying Members shall not at any time exceed 10 percent of the total Membership of the Credit Union.

- (b) If, at any time, the number of non-qualifying Members exceeds 10 per cent of the total Membership of the Credit Union the Board shall have power to terminate the Membership of as many non-qualifying Members as are necessary to reduce the number to 10 percent of the total Membership.
 - (c) The Board in exercising its power under Rule 13(b) shall terminate the Membership of those persons which it considers to have had the least involvement in the Credit Union. In the event that the Board is unable to make a distinction on such ground the persons whose Memberships are to be terminated shall be selected by means of a ballot conducted from a group of non-qualifying Members selected by the Board as having had the least involvement in the Credit Union.
 - (d) The Credit Union will repay the Shares of any non-qualifying Member whose Membership is terminated and will repay the Credit Union Securities of such a Member, only in accordance with Rule 13.
14. A Member, or the Member's personal representative, may request to withdraw from the Credit Union at any time. In such event:
- (a) all amounts paid up on Shares shall be paid to the Member as funds become available, but after deducting therefrom any amounts due from the Member to the Credit Union; but
 - (b) Credit Union Securities shall only be repaid to the Member in accordance with their terms of issue.
15. A Member may be expelled from Membership of the Credit Union by the General Manager but shall have a right to appeal such decision to the Board of Directors or a subcommittee of the Board set up for that purpose. The decision of the Board shall be final. In the event of such expulsion the Member shall have the same rights and be subject to the same obligations as a Member withdrawing from the Credit Union under Rule 14.

CAPITAL AND LIABILITY

16. The Credit Union shall issue Shares in its capital subject to the following:
- (a) Each Share shall have a par value of one dollar which may be paid for in whole or in part. A part payment shall be deemed to be a subscription in advance and no Share shall be allotted to a Member until it has been fully paid.
 - (b) The maximum amount of Shares which may be held by any one Member shall be fixed, from time to time, by the Board.
 - (c) Money paid in on Shares may be withdrawn at any time by any means including by Electronic Transaction (whether payable to the Member or any other person at the Member's discretion) but the Board shall have the right at any time to require Members to give 60 days' notice of their intention to withdraw the whole or any part of the money so paid.
 - (d) If a withdrawal of Shares would reduce a Member's paid-up holding in the Credit Union to less than the Member's total liability (including any contingent liability) to the Credit Union whether as borrower, or guarantor, or otherwise, then:
 - (i) in the case of a non-qualifying Member, the withdrawal shall not be permitted; and
 - (ii) in any other case the withdrawal shall be permitted only at the discretion of the Board.
 - (e) Shares in the Credit Union shall not be transferable and the Credit Union shall not issue a certificate to a Member denoting ownership of a Share.
 - (f) A Share may be held by two or more Members jointly. For the purposes of the Act the person first named on the Credit Union's ledger shall be deemed to be the Member to whom the Share was allotted.
17. Notwithstanding that Shares are not transferable, a Member may nominate a person or persons to receive any Shares that the Member may have in the Credit Union at his or her death or any sum of money payable by the Credit Union at that time. Such nomination shall be in writing on a form prescribed by the Board and delivered or sent to the registered office. The maximum value of Shares or sum of money so nominated shall not exceed the sum of $2,000 in total (or such other sum as may from time to time be authorised by the Act).

18. In the case of the death of a Member, the survivor or survivors where the deceased was a joint holder of Shares, and the legal personal representative of the deceased where the deceased was a sole holder of Shares, shall be the only persons recognised by the Credit Union as having any title to the deceased's interests in the Shares. In the case of the death of a joint holder of Shares his or her estate shall remain liable in respect of any Share which had been jointly held by that Member with other persons.
19. Where a Member dies or becomes bankrupt, the Member's personal representative or the assignee of the Member's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Board, to be paid all amounts paid in on Shares as funds become available and after deducting therefrom any amounts due from the Member to the Credit Union and any amount payable on Credit Union Securities, subject to the terms of issue of those Credit Union Securities.
20. The Share capital of the Credit Union is issued on the condition that its value may be written down and that any Shares may be consolidated with other Shares held by the Members in reduction of any accumulated losses of the Credit Union in the same proportion as all other Shares issued in the capital of the Credit Union are written down and consolidated provided always that any such write down by capital and consolidation of Shares is recommended by the Board and approved of by a Special Resolution.
21. The Credit Union may issue Credit Union Securities to Members on the following terms:
 - (a) Credit Union Securities:
 - (i) are transferrable only between Members; and
 - (ii) confer no voting rights;
 - (b) in the event of the Credit Union being wound up, claims for Credit Union Securities must not be paid until all creditors' claims and claims relating to Shares have been paid;
 - (c) in the event of the Credit Union incurring losses that exceed its retained earnings and reserves, the value of the Credit Union Securities must be written down accordingly; and
 - (d) on such additional terms as the Board thinks fit.

FEES, LEVIES AND CHARGES

22. Members shall pay for services provided by the Credit Union:
 - (a) Fees, levies and charges as determined by the Board, provided that such fees, levies and charges and any changes thereto shall not come into force until such time as they are sent by notice to all Members.
 - (b) Where the Credit Union incurs a charge from another organisation when acting on a Member's behalf, or incur legal fees, or fees associated with the registration of securities or in respect of credit references obtained with the consent of the Member, the Credit Union may pass those costs on to the Member.

FINES AND FORFEITURES

23. No fines or forfeitures shall be imposed on any Member.

FINANCIAL YEAR

24. The financial year of the Credit Union shall be from the 1st day of July to the 30th day of June each year, both dates inclusive.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

25. The Credit Union shall be governed by an Annual Meeting and between these meetings its affairs shall be conducted by the Board. Meetings of the Members shall be called as follows:
- (a) the Annual Meeting shall be held not later than the 31st day of October in each year at such time and place as the Board may prescribe;
 - (b) Special Meetings of Members may be called by the Board and shall be called by the Chair on receipt of a written application of Members as follows:
 - (i) Where the Membership of the Credit Union does not exceed 1000 Members, an application made by one-tenth of the whole number of Members.
 - (ii) Where the Membership of the Credit Union exceeds 1000 Members, an application made by 100 Members.
 - (c) At least seven days before any meeting of the Members the Secretary shall cause notice thereof to be given to each Member.
26. The business at Annual Meetings shall be:
- (a) To ascertain that a quorum is present
 - (b) The minutes of the last Annual Meeting (where appropriate)
 - (c) Report of Directors
 - (d) Presentation of the Audited Financial Statements
 - (e) Report of Treasurer
 - (f) Appointment of Auditor
 - (g) Any other reports
 - (h) Unfinished business
 - (i) New business other than remuneration and election of Directors
 - (j) Remuneration of Directors
 - (k) Elections
 - (l) Adjournment.
27. The Annual Meeting may suspend or vary the order of business upon a two-thirds majority vote provided that the conduct of elections shall be the final item of business to be transacted at the meeting.
28. A charitable entity or incorporated society that is a Member of the Credit Union under these Rules shall be entitled to appoint by notice in writing, signed by the Chair and Secretary of the entity or society, its representative at a meeting of Members. Such representative if so appointed shall be entitled to vote on behalf of that entity or society, provided that the notice shall not be effective unless it specifies whether the appointment is for a particular meeting or a specified term and a copy of the notice is delivered to the Credit Union not less than 24 hours before the stated commencement time of the meeting.
29. At Annual and Special Meetings 15 Members shall constitute a quorum. If no quorum is present, an adjournment may be taken to a date not less than seven, nor more than 17 days, thereafter. The Members present at any date to which the meeting is so adjourned shall constitute a quorum regardless of the number present. At least five days before the meeting so adjourned the Secretary shall cause notice thereof to be given to each Member.

ELECTIONS

30. The procedure for the nomination and election to office of the Directors shall be as follows:
- (a) At least 90 days before the proposed Annual Meeting the secretary shall cause notice to be given to Members:
 - (i) of the intention of the Credit Union to hold its Annual Meeting and the approximate date of that Annual Meeting;

- (ii) providing details of the vacancies and preferred skills required by the Board for which elections are to be held at the next Annual Meeting; and
 - (iii) calling for nominations for such vacancies which together with the candidates' curriculum vitae detailing their relevant skills and experience shall be sent in writing addressed to and received by the Secretary not less than 60 days prior to the Annual Meeting.
- (b) The notice referred to in Rule 30(a) may be given in writing, electronically and/or by publication in daily metropolitan newspapers.
- (c) The Secretary shall provide details of any nominations received pursuant to Rule 30(a)(iii) to the Nominating Committee (together with the curriculum vitae for each nominee).
- (d) It shall be the duty of the Nominating Committee to nominate at least one Member for each vacancy for which elections are being held and to advise the Secretary of such nominations at least 30 days prior to each Annual Meeting. The nominees may be persons nominated by the Members pursuant to Rule 30(a) or persons nominated by the Nominating Committee itself.
- (e) The Nominating Committee will only nominate members for vacancies on the Board if the Nominating Committee is of the opinion that those nominees will meet the Fit and Proper test.
- (f) No charitable entity or incorporated society that is a Member under these Rules may be nominated for, or elected to, any office in the Credit Union provided that this shall not prevent a person appointed to represent under Rule 28 from being nominated and elected to office if a Member of the Credit Union in his/her own right.
- (g) At least 21 days before the Annual Meeting the Secretary shall cause notice to be given to each Member of the following:
 - (i) the date of the Annual Meeting;
 - (ii) details of the vacancies for which elections are being held; and
 - (iii) the names of the persons nominated by the Nominating Committee for the Board vacancies.
- (h) The Secretary shall cause ballot papers to be prepared for distribution to Members at or before the Annual Meeting. Voting papers may be actual or electronic at the option of the Board.
- (i) All elections shall be determined by a majority vote and shall be by ballot except where there is only one nominee for the office.
- (j) Elections for Directors may be conducted by one ballot for all Directors or by separate ballots.
- (k) Following the appointment of scrutineers by the Chair the physical ballot papers shall be distributed, the votes shall be taken and tallied by the tellers (which includes tallying all physical and, if permitted, electronic voting papers) and the results announced.
- (l) Forthwith after the election of any new Director, the Nominating Committee shall cause to be sent to the Reserve Bank of New Zealand a suitability notice (as that term is defined in the NBDT Act) in respect of all newly elected Directors.
- (m) Where there have been any suitability issues raised in the suitability notice of any Director, that director may not hold office unless and until the Reserve Bank of New Zealand has issued a notice of non-objection in connection with that Director under section 16 of the NBDT Act. In all other situations the Director shall take office once the suitability notice is sent to the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.
- (n) This Rule 30 does not apply to the General Manager's appointment as a Director.

RIGHT OF VOTING

31. On every matter which is determined by a vote of Members the following Rules shall apply:
- (a) Subject to Rule 31(b) every Member who has attained the age of sixteen (16) years by the closing date for voting shall be entitled to vote and shall have one vote only.
 - (b) Where a Share is held by 2 or more Members jointly, the person first named on the Credit Union ledger shall have sole voting rights in any meeting of the Credit Union.
 - (c) Subject to Rules 31(d) and 31(e) the Chair may generally decide whether there will be voting by voice or voting by show of hands and proxy, provided that where voting by Electronic Communication or by a proxy applies to the meeting there must be one vote per Member present, in person or by proxy, or voting by Electronic Communication.
 - (d) Where a Member resides at a distance of not less than 100 kilometres from the place appointed for any meeting at which elections are to be conducted, or a Special Resolution is to be moved, that Member may cast a postal vote by means of a ballot paper prepared for this purpose and obtainable on request from the Secretary.
 - (e) Where a Special Resolution is proposed for any meeting, each Member may also vote by proxy. A proxy for a Member is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of Members as if the proxy were the Member.
 - (f) A proxy must be appointed by notice in writing, in the form from time to time prescribed (or otherwise approved) by the Board. The notice must state whether the appointment is for a particular meeting or for a specified term.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

32. The Board of Directors shall be constituted as follows:
- (a) Subject to Rule 32(b), the Board shall comprise not less than five (5) nor more than nine (9) Directors, one of whom will be the General Manager and which number may include up to two (2) co-opted Directors who do not have to be elected by the Members or have a contractual relationship with the Credit Union. All Directors must be Members of the Credit Union.
 - (b) Notwithstanding Rule 32(a), the minimum number of Directors may be less than 5 for so long as the Reserve Bank of New Zealand is dealing with the suitability notice of any Director.
 - (c) If the Reserve Bank of New Zealand notifies the Credit Union that any Director is unsuitable to be a Director that person shall not take office.
 - (d) Subject to Rule 32(e) the term of each Director, except for the General Manager, shall be three years or until the election and qualification of a successor or until disqualification of that Director. The General Manager shall be a Director for an indefinite term and shall not be required to be elected or re-elected by members.
 - (e) In the event of a vacancy on the Board (except for a vacancy contemplated by Rule 32(f)) caused by the death, resignation or disqualification of a Director, the Board shall appoint a Member to fill the vacant office and that Member shall subject to Rule 32(c) hold such office until the next Annual Meeting or until the election and qualification of a successor.
 - (f) Any vacancy in the office of Director due to a vacancy in the position of General Manager shall remain vacant until such time as a new General Manager (including a person acting temporarily as General Manager) is appointed and the Credit Union has sent to the Reserve Bank of New Zealand a suitability notice (as that term is defined in the NBDT Act) in respect of the General Manager. However, where there are any suitability issues raised in the suitability notice of the General Manager, they may not hold office unless and until the Reserve Bank of New Zealand has issued a notice of non-objection under section 16 of the NBDT Act.

33. (a) The Board shall meet on at least one occasion each month at a time and place (and/or manner) to be determined by the Board. The Chair or in his/her absence the Vice-Chair, or in their absence, the Secretary, may call a Special Meeting of the Board at any time and shall do so upon the written request of any three Directors. The Chair, Vice-Chair or Secretary, as the case may be, shall fix the time and place of any Special Meeting unless the Board by resolution prescribes otherwise. Notice to the Directors of all meetings of the Board shall be given in such manner as the Board may from time to time by resolution prescribe.
- (b) The manner of a meeting of the Board shall include a meeting held by means of audio or audio-visual communication by which all Directors participating and constituting a quorum can simultaneously hear each other throughout the meeting.
34. Directors comprising fifty per cent or more in number shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, but fewer than a quorum may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is in attendance. Proxy voting is not permitted. Written notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given to the Directors. If a Director fails to attend 3 consecutive meetings of the Board or otherwise fails to perform any of the duties of the office, the office may be declared vacant by the Board which shall then be filled in accordance with Rule 32(e).
35. The Board may regulate the manner in which it conducts its meetings and (without limitation) this may be by audio, or audio and visual, communication by which all Directors participating and constituting a quorum can simultaneously hear each other throughout the meeting.
36. The Nominating Committee will be a standing committee of the Board and will, at any time, comprise those Directors whose terms of office continue beyond the next Annual Meeting.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

37. The Board is authorised to determine, promulgate and implement the policies of the Credit Union and shall be responsible for the general management of the affairs and records of the Credit Union. In addition and without limiting the duties customarily performed by a Board of Directors, the Board may:
 - (a) Prescribe the forms to be completed by applicants for Membership, to act upon applications for Membership and to establish such procedures as will ensure that Membership applications are processed with a minimum of delay.
 - (b) Determine the lending policy of the Credit Union.
 - (c) Determine from time to time the rate or rates of interest consistent with the provisions, if any, prescribed by law which should be charged on loans.
 - (d) Establish the terms on which Share accounts may be established for Members provided that subscription shall be by Shares which shall rank equally with all and any other Shares issued by the Credit Union.
 - (e) Declare dividends on Shares in accordance with Rule 72 and distributions on Credit Union Securities in accordance with Rule 73.
 - (f) Authorise the employment of such person or persons as may be necessary to carry on the business of the Credit Union and fix the remuneration of such persons including the Treasurer.
 - (g) Determine the borrowing policy of the Credit Union.
 - (h) Determine the investment policy for the Credit Union and ensure investments made by the Credit Union are in compliance with these Rules, the Trust Deed and the Act.
 - (i) Cause proper accounting records to be kept relating to the transactions of the Credit Union and its assets and liabilities in accordance with section 121 of the Act.
 - (j) Establish and maintain a satisfactory system of control of the accounting records of the Credit Union, its cash holdings and all its receipts and payments in accordance with section 121 of the Act.
 - (k) Institute and maintain procedures for the prevention and detection of fraud or other dishonesty by any of the Officers or employees of the Credit Union and to take out and maintain a policy or policies of insurance providing cover against any such fraud or other dishonesty in accordance with section 133 of the Act.

- (l) Maintain an appropriate insurance cover over the fixed assets of the Credit Union and for all other risks as circumstances may warrant.
- (m) Establish the additional terms on which Credit Union Securities may be offered, pursuant to Rule 21(d).
- (n) Maintain a Conflicts Register at the registered office of the Credit Union in the format set out in Schedule "A" of these Rules and ensure that it is properly updated and maintained in accordance with Rule 63.
- (o) Appoint an Education and Promotion Committee (of such size and membership as the Board may from time to time determine) to further development of the Credit Union and an understanding of its principles and philosophies and whose functions shall include the promotion of the Credit Union and the fostering of education and training of its Members and Officers.
- (p) Give meaningful effect to the objects of the Credit Union set out in Rule 4 hereof.
- (q) Ensure that the Credit Union complies with all of its obligations under the Act.

52. A contract or other enforceable obligation may be entered into by the Credit Union as follows:
- (a) An obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, would by law, be required to be by deed may be entered into on behalf of the Credit Union in writing signed under the name of the Credit Union by:
 - (i) two or more Officers of the Credit Union whose signatures must be witnessed;
 - (ii) a Director, or other person authorised by the Board, whose signature must be witnessed; or
 - (iii) one or more attorneys appointed by the Credit Union in accordance with these Rules.
 - (b) An obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, is, by law, required to be in writing may be entered into on behalf of the Credit Union in writing by a person acting under the Credit Union's express or implied authority.
 - (c) An obligation that, if entered into by a natural person, is not, by law, required to be in writing may be entered into on behalf of the Credit Union in writing or orally by a person acting under the Credit Union's express or implied authority.
53. The Credit Union may, by an instrument in writing executed in accordance with Rule 52, appoint a person as its attorney either generally or in relation to a specified matter, as determined by the Board.

SUPERVISION

54. In order to comply with the FMC Act and the Regulations and/or any Exemption Notice, the Credit Union may enter into a Trust Deed with a Supervisor in a form approved by the Board pursuant to which:
- (a) the Supervisor covenants to monitor the affairs of the Credit Union for the benefit of Members;
 - (b) the Supervisor may in certain circumstances give directions in respect of the administration of the affairs of the Credit Union which are binding on the Board and on the Credit Union; and
 - (c) the Credit Union agrees to provide security to the Supervisor for the benefit of Members by way of an agreement to assign its undertaking to the Supervisor.
55. Any directions given by the Supervisor to the Board under the powers conferred on the Supervisor in the Trust Deed shall be given effect to by the Board and be binding on all Members.
56. The Credit Union is authorised to appoint from time to time by deed in a form to be approved by the Board and the Supervisor, any Receiver appointed by the Supervisor and each of the Supervisor's officers for the time being severally to be the Credit Union's attorney or attorneys for such purposes and with such powers, authorities and discretions and for such period and subject to such conditions as the Board may think fit, and any such powers of attorney may contain such provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with any such attorney as the Board may think fit and may also authorise any such attorney to delegate all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions vested in him or her.

57. The Supervisor, through any of its agents, attorneys or representatives, may attend at any meeting of the Credit Union and shall have the standing and right to speak and be heard at any such meeting, whether in relation to any matter arising during the course of the business of that meeting or any other matter which the Supervisor wishes to raise at the meeting.
58. At any time, the Supervisor may call a meeting of Members to raise and discuss any issue relating to the administration of the affairs of the Credit Union. The Supervisor shall be responsible for chairing any such meeting.
59. The Credit Union shall to the extent necessary to comply with the Act, the FMC Act, the Regulations, any exemption notice issued thereunder or any provision of the Trust Deed entered into with the Supervisor, amend these Rules provided that no amendment of these Rules shall be valid until registered pursuant to section 106B of the Act.
60. A Director shall vacate his or her office by resigning immediately he or she receives a notice of disqualification from the Supervisor pursuant to the Trust Deed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

61. For the purposes of Rules 62, 63, and 64 only, and no other Rules:
'Officer' includes a Director or member of the Board (including any other person who by precedent or agreement is an ex officio member), or a member of a Board Committee;
'Conflicts Register' means the document set out in Schedule "A" of these Rules; and
'Conflict of Interest' is a situation where there exists a relationship between an Officer and those listed below where such relationship is likely to affect the interests of the Credit Union or that Officer's independence and impartiality:
 - (a) a Member;
 - (b) an Enterprise;
 - (c) a staff Member;
 - (d) a spouse, defacto partner, child, or member of immediate household;
 - (e) a parent, uncle, aunt, brother, sister, or immediate relation through marriage;

 - (j) is removed from office, or deemed not fit to take office, under any applicable legislation including having a determination made by the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, pursuant to section 16 of the NBDT Act, that the Director is unsuitable to be a Director of the Credit Union; or
 - (k) is barred from holding office under legislation affecting financial institutions, or if any public disclosure is required to be made by the Credit Union in respect of that Officer concerning previous bankruptcy, conviction for a crime of dishonesty, prohibition as a director or manager by a Court or Tribunal, or conviction for failing to make such a disclosure.

LOANS AND SERVICES

66. The Credit Union may make loans (with or without security) as follows:
- (a) to Members; and
 - (b) to Enterprises in cases where:
 - (i) the Enterprise (when the loan is made):
 - (aa) is related to a Member; and
 - (ab) has no more than 19 full-time equivalent employees; and
 - (ii) the loan is to be used for the purposes of a business being, or to be, carried on by the Enterprise.
67. The Board may do any of the following:
- (a) Prescribe the form of the application for loans.
 - (b) Prescribe the purpose and security (if any) upon which loans may be made.
 - (c) Fix the maximum amount of any loan.
 - (d) Otherwise determine the Credit Union's lending policy (including, without limitation the Credit Union's lending policy with respect to loans to non-qualifying Members and Enterprises).

68. Where a loan has been made to a Member whose Membership is terminated, the Board may require that Member to repay the loan (on such terms and terms as the Board may determine).
69. The Credit Union may provide products or services as follows:
- (a) to Members;
 - (b) to Enterprises which have loans with the Credit Union under Rule 66(b); and
 - (c) to Enterprises in cases where:
 - (i) the Enterprise (when the product or service is provided):
 - (aa) is related to a Member; and
 - (ab) has no more than 19 full-time equivalent employees; and
 - (ii) the product or service is for the purposes of a business being, or to be, carried on by the Enterprise.
70. For the purposes of Rules 66 and 69, an Enterprise is related to a member (M) if:
- (a) the Enterprise is a body corporate and M has the power, directly or indirectly, to exercise, or to control the exercise of, the rights to vote attaching to 25% or more of the voting products (as defined in section 6(1) of the FMC Act) of the body corporate;
 - (b) the Enterprise is a firm under the Partnership Law Act 2019 in which M is a partner; and
 - (i) M's share of the firm's profits in accordance with the terms of the partnership is 25% or more; or
 - (ii) If M's share of the firm's profits cannot be determined in accordance with the terms of the partnership, M's share of the most recent distribution of the firm's profits was 25% or more; or
 - (c) the Enterprise is the trustee or trustees of a trust and M has, or the members of M's family (taken together) have, a beneficial entitlement to 25% or more of the trust's assets.
71. For the purposes of Rule 70(c), the members of M's family are:
- (a) M;
 - (b) any current or former spouse, civil union partner, or de facto partner of M;
 - (c) any brother, sister, lineal ancestor; or lineal descendant of M; and
 - (d) any current or former spouse, civil union partner, or de facto partner of a person covered by Rule 70(c).

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

72. Dividends on Shares may be paid to Members as follows:
- (a) In the course of, and/or at the end of, each financial year, the Board may declare a dividend or dividends from the net earnings received by the Credit Union.
 - (b) In the course of any financial year, the Directors may declare a special dividend to be paid on Shares withdrawn prior to the end of that financial year.
 - (c) Dividends may be paid on all fully paid-up Shares held for a period of not less than one month during that financial year or for such other period, whether continuous or broken, as the Board may direct. A fully paid-up Share shall be deemed to have been held by the Member for one month provided payment in full is received on or before the third working day of that month and the Share remains fully paid-up until the last working day of that month.
 - (d) Fully paid-up Shares which at the end of the financial year have been held for a period of less than 12 months shall be entitled to payment of a dividend, if declared, of an amount in direct proportion to the period that the Shares were so held.

- (e) Where, at the end of any financial year, the Board declares a dividend of not less than 4 percent, the Board may direct the payment of a refund, either in whole or in part, of the interest paid by Members in the course of that financial year on loans made by the Credit Union. The rate of any such interest rebate fixed by the Board shall be applied to each and every loan made by the Credit Union without variation or adjustment.
 - (f) A Member shall be deemed to have one fully paid Share for each sum of one dollar paid to the Credit Union irrespective of the number of Shares for which the Member has subscribed.
73. Distributions on Credit Union Securities may be paid from net earnings in accordance with the terms of issue of those Credit Union Securities.

SERVICE OF NOTICES

74. (a) Each Member must supply to the Credit Union a telephone contact, a postal address and, if the Member wishes to receive communications and notices of meetings by Electronic Communication, a working e-mail address.
- (b) It is a Member's obligation to ensure that any change in the contact telephone number, postal or e-mail address is notified to the Credit Union immediately.
- (c) Each Member must from time to time supply to the Credit Union such proof of identity and address as may be required to enable the Credit Union to comply with its obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 and all other applicable legislation requiring proof of identity.
75. Where notice of any meeting is required to be given to a Member, notice shall be deemed to have been duly given if, within the time prescribed by these Rules, written notice of the meeting and the business to be transacted at such meeting is delivered, whether by post or otherwise, to the Member's last address which appears in the records of the Credit Union or, with the prior approval of the Board, notice may be given by publication in metropolitan newspapers. Where a previous communication delivered by the Credit Union in such manner to a Member has been returned unclaimed notice shall be deemed to have been duly given to such Member if, within the time prescribed by these Rules, written notice of such meeting is advertised once in the Public Notices column of "metropolitan" newspapers.

TRANSFER OF ENGAGEMENTS

76. For the purposes of section 135(3) of the Act in the event of a proposal being received for the transfer of a Credit Union's engagements to the Credit Union, the Board of Directors may on behalf of the Members accept such a transfer of engagements and undertake to fulfil the engagement of that credit union, provided that such acceptance is by resolution passed by not less than 75 percent of the Board voting in person.
77. In considering a transfer of engagements the Board of Directors shall have regard to the consequential effects on the Credit Union's common bond and the requirements of section 135 of the Act.
78. It shall be within the power of the Board when accepting a transfer of engagements to enter into an arrangement whereby the persons holding office as directors on the Board of the transferring credit union (or a simple majority thereof) at the time of the transfer will have the sole right to retain the appointment of one or more (but not exceeding 3) directors who shall then hold office as additional Directors of the Credit Union for an agreed period which shall not in any case exceed 4 years. Such appointments shall be formally advised in writing and are in addition to the number of Directors specified in Rule 32(a) of these Rules.

ALTERATIONS TO RULES

79. These Rules may be altered by a resolution of a majority of Members entitled to vote and voting on the matter.
80. An amendment to these Rules will have no effect until that amendment is registered in accordance with the Act.

DISPUTES

81. (a) As a financial service provider registered under the Financial Service Providers (Registration and Dispute Resolution) Act 2008, the Credit Union is a Member of an approved dispute resolution scheme. Disputes between the Credit Union, or an Officer of the Credit Union, and its Members (including a person claiming through a former Member), or those that have ceased to be Members, will be dealt with in accordance with the disputes resolution process approved by the Credit Union's dispute resolution scheme provider.
- (b) The approved dispute resolution process includes first an internal resolution process, where disputes may be dealt with internally by the Credit Union and thereafter, if not resolved, disputes within the jurisdiction of the approved disputes resolution scheme will be dealt with in accordance with the rules of the approved disputes resolution scheme and all other disputes will be dealt with in accordance with Rule 81(c) to (g).
- (c) An unresolved dispute that does not come within the approved disputes resolution scheme shall be referred to arbitration as set out below.
- (d) One arbitrator shall be nominated by the Board on behalf of the Credit Union or the Officer and one by the other party. If the arbitrators are able to agree their decision shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.
- (e) If the arbitrators are unable to agree they shall appoint an umpire whose decision shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.
- (f) If either party shall neglect or refuse to appoint an arbitrator for a period of ten days after the receipt of notice of appointment of an arbitrator by the other party, such last named arbitrator may make a final decision alone and the decision so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties.
- (g) Subject to the right of an arbitrator or umpire to state a case for the opinion of the High Court and to the right of a person to refer a dispute to the Court where no decision is made on the dispute within forty days as provided in the Act, any decision which is binding and conclusive on all parties shall not be open to appeal and shall not be removable into any court of law or restrainable by injunction and application for enforcement of the decision may be made to a court of competent jurisdiction.

INVESTIGATION

82. Members may make an application to the Registrar for an investigation into the affairs of the Credit Union or for the calling of a Special Meeting of the Credit Union in accordance with the Act.

LIQUIDATION AND REMOVAL FROM REGISTER

83. The Credit Union may be put into liquidation by the appointment of a liquidator made pursuant to a Special Resolution.
84. In any liquidation of the Credit Union, any assets remaining after the repayment of debts, repayment of Share capital and discharge of all other liabilities (including Credit Union Securities) will be applied to such Charity or Charities as are determined by the Board.
85. Where:
- (a) the Credit Union has ceased to operate, has discharged in full its liabilities to all known creditors and it has distributed its remaining assets to those persons entitled to them or otherwise in accordance with these Rules; or
- (b) the Credit Union has no assets remaining after paying its debts in full or in part, and no creditor has applied to the High Court under Section 138 of the Act for an order putting the Credit Union into liquidation, any two Directors on behalf of the Board may by notice given to the Registrar confirming as to either 85(a) or 85(b) above and requesting that the Credit Union be removed from the Register.
